

In Lilly the Lash's adventure, The Little Building,
RESPONSIBILITY is the lesson.

Answer the questions below in your own words.

What does the word RESPONSIBILITY mean to you? _____

What does it feel like if someone doesn't follow through with what they promised to be responsible for?

If someone realizes they haven't been responsible, do you think it's important for them to come forward and talk to those who they have let down? Why or why not?

Pretend that you were responsible for getting a job done for your team, but you didn't follow through, and now you've all missed the deadline. What would you do?

If you had trouble with being responsible and reliable, what might you do to help yourself get in the habit of following through or getting things done?

Do you think people respect someone who is RESPONSIBLE and can be counted on? Why?
